

Religion

- 1) Tell me about your faith community...
- 2) What resources does your faith community provide?

Do you feel welcome. Does your faith accept you?

How would you describe your spiritual orientation?

TALK ABOUT YOUR SENSE OF SAFETY IN PRACTICING YOUR BELIEFS IN YOUR COMMUNITY.

What parts of your experiences with religion have been positive? Which parts have been negative?

In what ways do your religious beliefs offer you comfort?

Is there a particular religious or faith tradition from which you practice? (If yes) Tell me about that.

To what degree do you believe in a spirituality of some kind?

Civic Engagement

- 1) Tell me about your level of experienced safety when voting...
- 2) Tell me about your access to voting...
3. Do you ever correspond w/ the person representing you. Do you know you can?
4. What makes <sup>would make you</sup> you feel understood by community leaders?
5. If you were a leader in this city, what do you want the city to know about the true reality of homelessness?
6. What, if any, sense of impact do you feel you would if you were further/more involved in the political decisions in your community?
7. Do you feel like your voice matters?
8. How INVOLVED ARE COMMUNITY GROUPS and TRADITIONS in local DEMOCRACY?

Mental Health

- 1) What do you call what you are experiencing?
- 2) What is your prognosis/forecast for what you are experiencing?
- 3) What would your community advise you to do based on what you are experiencing?
  - What is your view on why mental health challenges come to be?
4. Is addiction ~~best~~ considered M.H or weakness?
What has your experience with mental health services been like?

How might you describe your experience with mental health services?

What does your family think about mental health treatment?

Como entiende Ud, la diferencia entre la salud del cerebro y salud del cuerpo?

- PLEASE EXPLAIN TO ME HOW YOUR DIAGNOSIS AFFECT YOUR DAILY LIFE.

What do you need?

Death & Dying

- 1.) What should happen to the body after death?
- 2.) How does your community frame the process after death?
- 3.) What would be helpful for your family to do for you after you have moved on?
- 4.) Are there any spiritual practices around death/dying that you find helpful?
- 5.) Do you feel safe expressing your feelings with friends, other family members. Are you seen as an individual in your own grief process?
- 6.) How do you say goodbye and honor your person(s) who died?
- 7.) How might you want to be remembered after you die?
- 8.) What do you feel?

Community

- 1) Tell me about where you access food...
- 2) What is your relationship w/ first responders?
- 3) Do you have a place called home (stable housing)?
- 4) Who do you trust in your community?
- 5) In what ways do you feel like an outsider or insider?
- 6) How do you have "fun" or recreation opportunities.
- 7) Are there any supports in your community that you rely on?
- 8) What does it mean to be part of your community?
9. What population is being ignored or minimized.

Migration

- 1) What does/did support look like during your migration?
- 2) What triggered your migration?
- 3) Where are most of your relatives + ~~do you have~~ <sup>what kind of</sup> opportunities <sup>do you have</sup> to connect with them?
- 4) Now that you're here, what would help you feel safe and at home?
- 5) What do you love or miss about the community/place you migrated from?
How do you keep those things alive?

Schools

- 1) Tell me about your school's relationship to your community...
- 2) Tell me about the welcome parents receive...
- 3) How welcomed do you feel you are to discuss concerns with your child's teachers?
- 4) What does the School focus on that's most important to you and your child?
- 5) What is your child's school's attitude to different RELIGIONS + NONE
6. What are some ways that your community values education?
7. How does your school address diversity & Differences
8. How is Bullying addressed
- 9) How does your school include you and your community on a day-to-day basis?